MEMORANDUM FOR: DED Finance

SUBJECT : POV Transportation Expenses -

25X1A

1. Subject is presently assigned to Detachment II and was transferred there from Detachment B. Subject transported his privately owned automobile from B to United States and it is presently being held in storage in Washington, D. C. pending his return from Detachment II.

2. Paragraph 4c of subject's contract provides:

"In addition to the compensation otherwise provided in this contract, you will be provided:

Transportation including shipment of a privately-owned automobile, shipment and/or storage of household effects (if you are married and elect to have your dependents with you), and other authorized travel expenses in substantial compliance with Agency regulations to and from areas of Agency activities and, to the extent such expenses are authorized by the Agency, to and from other points when the travel is directed and approved by the Agency. Travel of dependents will be in accordance with applicable rules and regulations of the theatre military commander."

3. ^{2/you} ~~Cover~~ queried whether the parenthetical phrase in the first sentence of the contract ^{there is} ~~is~~ nullifies the form of subject's POV as government expense because he is single. This is to advise you that the marital status has no effect on the form of a POV ^{as} ~~is~~ the parenthetical phrase is in the form of household effects only. ^{modification}

4. In view of the above, it is requested that you take whatever action is necessary to settle the outstanding transportation costs on subject's POV.
